

OWNER ONLY GROUPS

Carrier	Will the carriers write an Owner Only Group?
	No. Aetna will not write a group without at least 1 non-owner W2 employee.
	Yes. Anthem will accept Owner Only groups as long as the groups' business entity is a type of Corporation such as LLC, S-Corp or C-Corp. Anthem requires at least 2 owners and at least one owner must be able to sign the Eligibility Statement.
	No. Blue Shield will not write a group without at least 1 non-owner W2 employee.
	No. CaliforniaChoice will not write a group without at least 1 non-owner W2 employee.
	No. CalCPA will not write a group without at least 1 non-owner W2 employee.
	Yes. Health Net will accept an officer only group as long as the officers are not shareholders and at least 1 officer is listed on the DE9C.
	Yes. Kaiser Permanente will accept owner only group as long as there are 2+ owners and one of them is a W2 employee.
	No. Sharp Health Plan will not write a group without at least 1 non-owner W2 employee.
	Yes. UnitedHealthcare will accept Owner Only groups as long as the groups' business entity is a type of Corporation such as LLC, S-Corp or C-Corp with at least 2 eligible owners. If there is only 1 owner, the group must have at least 1 common-law W2 employee to be considered a Small Employer.

www.wordandbrown.com